President Mike Doran: Absent

Vice President Tony LaVecchia: Tony will be attending the Advocacy in Action 15-17 April in DC and the MOAA convention in Daytona in May.

Treasurers Report Bob Bell: $5,655.56 in checking account, with $100.00 in petty cash. The Florida Council of Chapters was paid for an advertisement in the bulletin.

Secretary's Report Kate Waldrop: 3 members (Harlow, Stola, and Herkenhoff) emails were returned after the April announcement was sent out. Looking at past email lists, these emails are correct. Dave Kriete has sent the BOD members the most updated list of members. These email addresses may have been changed by the recipients.

Membership Charlie Finnegan:. absent

Data Processing: Dave Kriete absent He has updated the member roster as of 23 March. Two members are pending addition to the roster, Joe Vrtis and John Sarnecky

Web Site Development Tracy Connors: NCFLMOAA.org absent Tracy has not been able to access the website as an administrator. He will connect with Joe Blanchard to "iron out" the issue.

Surviving Spouse Support Liaison Mary Gustufson: Sonny Mann's daughter would like a precise time to celebrate her dad's bricklaying ceremony. We cannot accommodate a precise time because we are scheduled after the Memorial Day Parade in Fernandina Beach.

Programs/Events Harry Henning: Harry has not heard from Matthew Davis (Yulee News and Buzz Media Group) to confirm his speaking engagement in April. Back up plans are in place for Tony LaVecchia to speak about his trip to SE Asia (Vietnam and Thailand), if Mr. Davis is unable to attend.

Legislative Affairs Michael McClane: absent Mike has requested we make a decision on supporting a non-profit. At this time, we will revisit later in the year.

ROTC Gene Kilcawley: There will be a JROTC ceremony on April 26, 2024 at Layton Landing (Yulee) 4/26/2024 at 1800 hrs. Dinner will be served at 1845. We have been invited to attend.

Chaplain Lou Tonti: absent
